About the CMC

The Curriculum Materials Center, a division of the University of Central Florida Libraries, provides representative P-12 materials for pre-view, review, analysis, and circulation.

Collections

The CMC contains approximately 25,000 items, and includes fiction and picture books, general resources, textbooks, multimedia, and reference materials.

Fiction and Picture Books

The CMC purchases many award winning books, among them are Newbery, Caldecott, Coretta Scott King, and Scott O'Dell.

Textbooks

The CMC reviews textbooks that are on the State of Florida Instructional Materials Adoption List.

General Resources

This collection contains resource materials that a teacher might use in the classroom (such as videos, games, manipulatives, or books with lesson plans and classroom activities). Folklore, poetry, biographies, and other nonfiction are also found here.

Reference

Find Sunshine State Standards here and study guides to the Florida Teacher Certification Exam. Dictionaries, encyclopedias, and bibliographies round out this non-circulating collection.

Services

Tours and Reserves

Class orientations and tours are available face to face or online. Please contact us at 407-823-2791 to schedule one for your class.

http:// library.ucf.edu/cmc/Orientation/default.asp

CMC materials can be placed on reserve by UCF faculty on a semester by semester basis. More information is available at

<http://library.ucf.edu/CMC/Servfac.asp>

Online Resources

Check out the CMC Web site to find operating hours, take a virtual tour, find contact information and more.

Subject Bibliographies

Students often seek picture and fiction books that address a particular subject. You can search our database by subject, genre, or even awards.

Tutorial for Information Literacy in Education (TILE)

<http://library.ucf.edu/cmc/TILE/default.asp>

A tutorial designed to introduce you to information sources specific to education is located on the site. The tutorial contains several modules, so students can work through at their own pace.
